Dear ***,

This is in response to a request submitted on your behalf by your authorized representative dated August 31, 2007, as supplemented by additional correspondence submitted from October 2007 through January 2009, in which you request a waiver of the 60-day rollover requirement contained in section 408 (d) (3) of the Internal Revenue Code (the "Code").

The following facts and representations have been submitted under penalty of perjury in support of the ruling requested:

You are 50 years old. You had an Individual Retirement Arrangement (IRA), IRA X, which was maintained by Company B. You represent that during August of 2006, you transferred Amount A to Financial Institution D. You assert that your failure to accomplish a rollover of Amount A within the 60-day period prescribed by section 408 (d) (3) was due to an error committed by Financial Institution D. You represent that Amount A has not been used for any other purpose.

Amount A was distributed from IRA X on Date 1, and deposited into a non-IRA account with Financial Institution D on Date 2. Amount A remained in a non-IRA account with Financial Institution D during Period 1. Period 1 represents the time from Date 2 to the day prior to Date 3. During Period 1, you attempted to execute what would have been a timely rollover of Amount A.

You have provided documentation that representatives from Financial Institution D dissuaded you from accomplishing a timely rollover. You have provided documentation reflecting that representatives of Financial Institution D knew Amount A represented IRA funds. You have provided documentation that details a long-standing banking relationship with Financial Institution D.

Based upon your history with Financial Institution D, you relied upon their advice and continued to maintain a non-IRA account with Financial Institution D during Period 1. You maintained an account with Financial Institution D until you were able to collect, without penalty, periodic interest upon Amount A and then you transferred Amount A to Company E. On Date 3, you transferred Amount A into IRA Y, an IRA you established with Company E on Date 4. You assert that you did not become aware of a 60-day rollover period requirement until after Date 3, when you were notified of the same by your accountant.

Based on the facts and representations, you request a ruling that the Internal Revenue Service waive the 60-day rollover requirement with respect to the distribution of Amount A contained in section 408 (d) (3) of the Code in this instance.

Section 408 (d) (1) of the Code provides that, except as otherwise provided in section 408 (d), any amount paid or distributed out of an IRA shall be included in gross income by the payee or distributee, as the case may be, in the manner provided under section 72 of the Code.

Section 408 (d) (3) of the Code defines and provides the rules applicable to IRA rollovers.

Section 408 (d) (3) (A) of the Code provides that section 408 (d) (1) of the Code does not apply to any amount paid or distributed out of an IRA to the individual for whose benefit the IRA is maintained if--

- (i) the entire amount received (including money and any other property) is paid into an IRA for the benefit of such individual not later than the 60th day after the day on which the individual receives the payment or distribution; or

(ii) the entire amount received (including money and any other property) is paid into an eligible retirement plan (other than an IRA) for the benefit of such individual not later than the 60th day after the date on which the payment or distribution is received, except that the maximum amount which may be paid into such plan may not exceed the portion of the amount received which is includible in gross income (determined without regard to section 408 (d) (3)).

Section 408 (d) (3) (B) of the Code provides that section 408 (d) (3) does not apply to any amount described in section 408 (d) (3) (A) (i) received by an individual from an IRA if at any time during the 1-year period ending on the day of such receipt such individual received any other amount described in section 408 (d) (3) (A) (i) from an IRA which was not includible in gross income because of the application of section 408 (d) (3).

Section 408 (d) (3) (E) of the Code provides that the rollover provisions of section 408 (d) do not apply to any amount required to be distributed under section 408 (a) (6).

Section 408 (d) (3) (I) of the Code provides that the Secretary may waive the 60-day requirement under section 408 (d) (3) (A) of the Code where the failure to waive such requirement would be against equity or good conscience, including casualty, disaster, or other events beyond the reasonable control of the individual subject to such requirement. Only distributions that occurred after December 31, 2001, are eligible for the waiver under section 408 (d) (3) (I) of the Code.

Revenue Procedure 2003-16, 2003-4 I.R.B. 359 (January 27, 2003) provides that in determining whether to grant a waiver of the 60-day rollover requirement pursuant to section 408 (d) (3) (I) of the Code, the Service will consider all relevant facts and circumstances, including: (1) errors committed by a financial institution; (2) inability to complete a rollover due to death, disability, hospitalization, incarceration, restrictions imposed by a foreign country or postal error; (3) the use of the amount distributed (for example, in the case of payment by check, whether the check was cashed); and (4) the time elapsed since the distribution occurred.

The information presented and documentation you submitted is consistent with your assertion that your failure to accomplish a timely rollover was caused by an error committed by a financial representative of Financial Institution D.

Therefore, pursuant to section 408 (d) (3) (I) of the Code, the Service hereby waives the 60-day rollover requirement with respect to the distribution of Amount A from IRA X. Provided all other requirements of section 408 (d) (3) of the Code, except the 60-day requirement, are met with respect to such contribution, Amount A will be considered a rollover contribution within the meaning of section 408 (d) (3) of the Code.

No opinion is expressed as to the tax treatment of the transaction described herein under the provisions of any other section of either the Code or regulations which may be applicable thereto. This letter expresses no opinion as to whether IRA X satisfied the requirements of section 408 of the Code.
